Petition To Accept an Unintentionally Delayed Claim Under 35 U.S.C. §119(e) for the Benefit of a Prior Filed Provisional Application Under 37 CFR §1.78

MAIL STOP AMENDMENT
Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

This application, U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/828,296 ("The '296 Application"), is a continuation-in-part of U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/707,430 ("The '430 Application"), which is a continuation of U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/298,272 ("The '272 Application," now U.S. Pat. 6,142,924), which is a continuation of U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 08/950,377 ("The '377 Application," now U.S. Pat. 5,944,648). The '430, '272, and '377 Applications all claim benefit of U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 60/028,556 ("The '556 Provisional") under 35 U.S.C. §119(e) either directly or indirectly. The '296 Application claims benefit of U.S. Provisional Patent Application Serial Nos. 60/215,499 and 60/195,686, but inadvertently failed to claim priority to the '556 Provisional. The '556 Provisional was filed on October 15, 1996.

Under 37 C.F.R. §1.78(a)(6), a petition to accept an unintentionally delayed claim under 35 U.S.C. §119(e) for the benefit of a prior-filed provisional application may be accepted during the pendency of the later-filed application if accompanied by: (1) the reference to priority; (2) the surcharge set forth in 37 C.F.R. §1.17(t) ($1,330.00); and (3) a statement that the entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 C.F.R. §1.78(a)(5)(ii) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. In accordance with the first requirement described above, a Supplemental Amendment adding the claim of priority to the instant patent application accompanies this Petition. In accordance with the third requirement, the delay in claiming priority under 37 CFR §1.78 (a)(5)(ii) was entirely unintentional. The chain of provisional and non-provisional applications noted above establishes the basis in the instant application for a claim of priority to the '556 Provisional, though an explicit claim was omitted. Accordingly, the Assignee respectfully requests this petition be accepted under 37 C.F.R. §1.78.

Should any additional fees or petitions be required, please consider this a request therefor and authorization to charge Deposit Account No. 04-1415 as necessary.

If the Examiner should have any questions, please contact the undersigned attorney.
